SATURDAY 12TH SEPTEMBER 2026

ANNUAL LLEYN SHEEP SOCIETY SALE

11.00 am – Auctioneers: Chris Voyce & Richard Barrow

The first annual sale of Lley Sheep at Cirencester Livestock Market with a good entry selling to a flying trade. Theaves, breeding ewes and rams in high demand but ewe lambs' slightly harder work.

The theaves saw a strong trade with the best £340 - £360 topping at £400 from Mrs H Wells. The good commercial theaves nearly all traded between £300 - £320 and the next level generally £260 - £280.

The ewe lambs was a different story with only customers at a price with some changing hands between £150 - £160 and very few customers over these figures.

A strong trade on the rams being all shearlings with the best over 1400 guineas topping at 1550 guineas (£1627.50) from Mr L Organ. The next level saw many trading between 1000 - 1300 guineas. The commercial rams were 600 - 800 guineas with the next level 400 - 500 guineas.

Averages; Theaves (189) Topped at £400, Average £298. Breeding Ewes (20) Topped at £220, Average £207, Ewe Lambs (141) Topped at £160, Average £158, Breeding Rams (50) Topped at 1,550 Guineas, Average 789 Guineas.
